

Yorkshire Contaminated Land Forum Event

Advances in Contaminated Land Assessment and Remediation

Firth Hall, Firth Court, University of Sheffield

9.30 to 12.30 1st March 2024

09:30-9:50	Registration
09:50-10:00	Welcome	Jenny Lightfoot, Arup
10:00-10:25	Considering climate change in controlled waters risk assessment	Jesse Davies, Ramboll
10:25-10:40	Temporal evolution and crop-induced changes in Zn and Cu speciation within farm soil amended with sewage sludge	Jianting Feng, Leeds University
10:40-11:00	Aire Park: A phased approach to urban regeneration	Chris Cooke and Tom Middleton, Rhodar
11:00-11:40	Refreshment break and networking
11:40-12:00	Development of treatment barriers using waste materials to attenuate pollutants in urban run-off	Mengke Wu, GPRG, University of Sheffield
12:00-12:20	Site application of PFASorb & E-Clay remediation of PFAS soil & groundwater contamination	Simon Farr, Envirotreat
12:20-12:30	Final remarks
12:30	Close

Join us at the next YCLF event in Sheffield for a morning of excellent presentations and networking with contaminated land colleagues from across the industry.

All are welcome to attend - this event is free of charge but please register your place via eventbrite.

Link: <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/yclf-event-advances-in-contaminated-land-assessment-and-remediation-tickets-808842889857?aff=oddtcreator>

Event kindly sponsored by:

